

Youth Ministers

Leah Torosian and Charlotte Thompson

Leah and Charlotte were unknowingly connected long before they ever met. Charlotte went to elementary school with Leah's youngest brother, and Leah married a guy who had Charlotte's dad as his sixth grade teacher. And then Leah's mom was hired here at FCC Selma as the choir director and became besties with Charlotte's mom. When Leah's mom died, Charlotte's mom "adopted" Leah, and now Charlotte and Leah are sisters. They've been doing youth ministry together on and off for over a decade.

Charlotte is Pastor Chad's wife. She is currently a stay-at-home-mom but when she was working, it was in the retail and optical industries. She and Chad have been ministering together since they got married in 2000. They have served four churches in California and Oregon. Together, she and Chad have six children. They just found out they'll be grandparents for the first time in February.

Leah works for a nationwide tank company where she "builds tanks and kicks butt." Or something like that. She and her husband had just celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary right before he died earlier this year. We miss him very much! She enjoys running 5k races with her friends, and singing in the church choir.

We are looking forward to hanging out with the youth and young adults. We know that God is working and can't wait to see where He takes us!
